Welcome to Free Car Mag. We are different to other car magazines, not only because we are actually free, but free to think and do things differently.

At Free Car Mag we are committed to bringing you stories, pictures and information that you will find genuinely useful, amusing, provocative, odd, silly and fun. Free Car Mag will tell you what's going on in the four wheeled (and sometimes two-wheeled) world without getting all precious and pretentious about it.

This is a magazine for you so we want to know what you think. Tell us what we can do better and ask us questions. Do that via our brilliant website which will also help you value a car, buy another and how to run one for less.

Free Car Mag love cars and driving them, but we don't believe it has to be complicated. No one really needs to know how to change a water pump, unless they really want to. Free Car Mag promises never to use any boring technical terms and if you spot the word crankshaft in these pages we will send you a cheque for £100. Britax are a bit more generous offering the chance to win a Range Rover Evoque when you buy one of their brilliant products. Meanwhile, the good people at Halfords have some fantastic giveaways for some lucky readers and all you have to do is email your details to us at the website.

Clearly Free Car Mag is not for blokes who smell of engine oil, but for most of us that don't.

CAROL VORDERMAN GETS PLUGGED IN

Carol Vorderman, MBE, has been using the Vauxhall Ampera extended-range electric vehicle, in support of the Go Ultra Low campaign. For a techie and qualified pilot like Carol this car is packed with features. Voice activated sat navigation featuring street level mapping for 20 European countries, audio/video DVD player, and Bose 'Energy Efficient Series' sound system. She also finds it a doddle to use, "It's easy. You come home, plug it in, you go away and come back in the morning and it's fully charged."

Singer Dionne Bromfield cruises in her Adam

Dionne Bromfield, British soul singer-songwriter and TV personality loves her Vauxhall ADAM SLAM. Dionne commented, "It's absolutely perfect for whizzing around London and it's full of gadgets. The infotainment system makes it really easy for playing my music and the hands-free calling means staying in touch with friends is easy."

And just in case you wondered what Dionne listens to in her SLAM, her fave tunes include: Mark Ronson ft Bruno Mars - Uptown Funk, Ella Henderson - Ghost, Ed Sheeran - Thinking Out Loud and Blazin' Squad - Crossroads.

Foxes Rock up to the Q Awards

Citroën has continued its sponsorship of the Q Awards for another year. To celebrate the 25th anniversary of the Q Awards, there was a one-off appearance on the red carpet from a specially prepared chrome-finished C4 Cactus. Even more eye catching was Grammy award winning Foxes, that's Louisa Rose Allen to her mum, who recently featured in an episode of Dr.Who. Also pictured as a blur is white van man Dave, who is currently installing a bathroom in Chiswick.

Idris Elba gets to grips with the latest Jaguar XE

Actor, Producer, Musician, Film maker and car fan. Idris Elba looking relaxed before driving the new Jaguar XE from London to Berlin. Idris Elba commented: "My work takes me around the world, but I rarely have the time or luxury of getting behind the wheel for myself. I wanted to do this trip and record the experience through a series of short films. I have long been a fan of Jaguar's incredible sporting heritage and have been truly impressed with how the brand has evolved over the past few years. It's a real privilege to drive the new XE on this road trip across Europe." Catch the films online at jaguar.com and copy his style in the shops..

WILL.I.AM

PUTS

DOWN

W

William James Adams has a lot to answer for. He also answers to a lot of titles. Rapper, singer-songwriter, entrepreneur, Black Eyed Pea, The Voice Judge, actor, DJ, record producer, Grammy Award winner and philanthropist, oh and car designer.

Will.i.am as he is rather better known has turned his hand to car design with some fairly mixed results. It is a good job then that he has linked up with Lexus to launch the new NX. Significantly will.i.am will design his own limited edition interpretation of the NX, which is Lexus's sharply-styled entry into the premium mid-size SUV market (posh 4 x 4s). He also stars in a rather funky television commercial supporting the new model, which features a rectangular fox.

William James Adams has a lot to answer for..

'Whatever I do, I want it to be striking. I want to innovate and revolutionise, and my partnership with Lexus on the Striking Angles campaign is no different. Inspired by our shared philosophy in design, we've been able to work together on a multi-faceted campaign that will challenge design conventions and fuel people's imaginations.'

A believer in Stem (science, technology, engineering, maths) education, he says his aim is to help the next generation 'dream what the future will be'. Something he has achieved by setting up his own car company i.am.auto. 'I don't want to make thousands of cars. I want to make vehicles so that when kids learn a Stem skillset, something tangible comes out of it.'

So far there have been just a handful of highly distinctive cars. Firstly will.i.am worked with customisers West Coast Customs to produce a reimagined 1959 Chevrolet Corvette. The body is Corvette, but slightly modified, whilst 2008 Corvette running gear boosted performance and inside, as you would expect, the latest entertainment technology.

CAREER SNAPSHOT

Pea in Pod

Born William J. Adams on March 15, 1975, in Los Angeles, California, according to an interview with the Daily Beast 'raised in the ghetto, on welfare, two minutes from homeless.' In high school, he met Allen Pineda and they formed rap group Atban Klann and signed in 1992 to Eazy-E's Ruthless Records label.

The Black Eyed Peas

In 1995, will.i.am renamed the group the Black Eyed Peas. Stacy "Fergie" Ferguson became a permanent member and transformed the group. Their 2003 album, Elephunk, was boosted by "Where Is the Love," featuring Justin Timberlake. With will.i.am in charge these mega hits followed including, "I Gotta Feeling," "Boom Boom Pow" and "Let's Get It Started." By 2013, they had sold 31 million albums and won three Grammys.

Beyond the Peas

will.i.am has produced music for others including Mariah Carey and Michael Jackson. In 2007 he struck out with his own album, Songs About Girls. His biggest smash has been #willpower in 2013, which included the duets "#ThatPOWER" with Justin Bieber, "Fall Down" with Miley Cyrus and "Scream & Shout" with Britney Spears. Not only that he's also an actor with a co-starring role alongside Hugh Jackman in the 2009 blockbuster X-Men Origins: Wolverine.

'I got Beats audio, it's sick, it's really fresh'

Then there is the De Lorean lookalike which will be the first product of his car company. As William explains, 'I went to Chrysler and got a whole bunch of parts to where it's still certified as a legal vehicle on the streets... I don't really mess with the airbag configurations or things like that. Kept the chassis and we create the shell, which is the body and the interior and the audio interface, I got Beats audio, it's sick, it's really fresh.'

His other West Coast Customs creation, an all aluminium 1930s style sports coupe cost a staggering $900,000.

As well as going out on a limb and styling his own unique cars William has pretty good taste when it comes to more conventional models such as the ultimate supercar, the McLaren MP4-12C, the consummate luxury barge in the shape of the Bentley Continental GT and the cutting edge all electric Tesla Model S.

Whatever you think about William he's certainly earned the right not to be called plain old William James Adams anymore. He's also highly unlikely to go and buy a diddy hatchback.

WILL'S OWN CARS

McLaren 650S - When I am late

He will definitely get to the gig on time thanks to the 207mph that this £195,000 supercar delivers.

Bentley Continental - Weekender

What a way to waft around at the weekend behind the wheel of this fabulous car. The V8 version will top 185mph and costs a mere £146,000

Tesla Model S - Daily drive

This may be the everyday motor but it is far from conventional especially as this high tech saloon relies solely on its electric motor. Prices start at £50,280.

CORSA VS COOPER

Matt reckons you'd be bonkers to just go and buy yourself a MINI Cooper when the Corsa that can offer you so much more

So you have £5,000 to spend and you want a first car? You want to look cool and feel good. You work in the city so you only really want it for long weekend runs to Brighton or to see your folks.

So you will probably buy a 10 year old BMW Mini with 75 - 95000 miles on the clock. It's cool, it looks very similar to the current model, and it's made by BMW, so it can't go wrong, right?

But what you should buy is a 4 year old Vauxhall Corsa for the same money. The fact is a new Corsa will be reliable and cheap to run, and an old Mini just won't be.

What I am trying to say here - in case you haven't got it - is that at £5,000 you can look cool broken down on the road side, or feel good as you drive past

Why Parking should be Free

This week the opinionated passenger in the back reckons we would all better off if the parking restrictions were done away with and the painted yellow lines right out of lives

As the popular revolutionary chant sort of goes:
*Freedom of movement.
 That's what we want.
 When do we want it?
 Now.*

Oh yes, and we also want the freedom to park just about anywhere, for free.

Take the High Street, it is dying precisely because you will get a ticket from a warden if you overstay your welcome, or take your chances. The local council have decided that they know best, having installed a forest of road signs and restrictions designed to make a shopper's life hell.

What they don't understand is that cars are wealth generators. They take people into the area who are going to spend money, do business and generally bring income on wheels. That's really good news for the independent butcher, baker and candlestick maker. Instead of going to a characterless out of town shopping centre the car user keeps it real, by staying local. And the crucial part is they may not actually be local to the local shops, hence the usefulness of the car.

It can't be right that we are expected to rent a prime piece of parking space when we are already paying Council Tax and Road Fund Licence for the privilege of being able to use the Queen's Highway.

Free parking will cause chaos. However, chaos eventually regulates itself. If there is gridlock for a while, soon people learn not to go shopping at certain times. Maybe shop opening hours will change to cope. If this is your local high street then perhaps you won't be silly enough to take your car at all. A healthy walk or cycle ride will be fine. We say, have faith in the ordinary, decent human being to do the right thing.

So should we paint over all those unsightly yellow lines and sack all the parking wardens? Of course if you are stupid enough to park on a Zebra crossing, or on the pavement causing wheelchairs and baby buggies to veer into the road, or idiotic enough to park on someone's flower bed, or inconsiderately in breach of the existing laws and common decency; then you will be dealt with appropriately.

So how long does it take to shop and maybe have a coffee in the average high street? An hour or two? That's your slot then. Easy to administer and enforce.

It's not right to rent a prime piece of parking space when we are already paying Council and Road tax

And what will happen to all that extra money we have swilling around the local economy? Well people can decide just what to do with it to make their lives and businesses better. Meanwhile the local authorities, with all those previously empty shops that are now occupied and bringing in valuable business rates, could start building those cycle lanes they are always on about. Perhaps they could provide park and walk areas on land that they own but refuse to use in any meaningful way.

HOW REVOLUTIONARY IS THAT?

Let us know what you think whether it is YES Make Parking Free. NO Things are fine as they are. Or ACTUALLY I have a much better suggestion to make....Feedback will be printed in the next few weeks...

Frilly Seat

THE WORLD'S FIRST FABRIC CAR

A full size lace replica of SEAT's Mii by MANGO city car has been constructed entirely of lace, with fancy jewel trim embellishment. It was built to celebrate the UK availability of the SEAT Mii by MANGO city car. This fashion-inspired full size replica was designed and constructed in London and it wasn't easy.

3 day build in London based studio
45 metres of nude coloured cotton lace
25 kilos of resin to set the lace
10m of black cotton lace to build 3D wheels
70m of lace trimming with jewel trimmings
8-strong specialist team led by fashion designer and creative director, Ashley Joiner

Ashley Joiner, a creative director and graduate of Central Saint Martins, was brought on board to manage the project, from conception through to delivery. He said: "Lace is one of the hottest fashion trends right now, so it made sense to use lace as the primary material for the SEAT Mii by MANGO, a fashion-inspired city car. I'm absolutely thrilled to be part of this project, which combines my film and design experience."

The Porsche selection

FROM MOTORS.CO.UK

verybody wants a Porsche, absolutely everyone. It doesn't matter whether they can drive, or tell Cayman from a 911, or know what lift of oversteer is, they just want one. The simple facts are that a Porsche not only signals to onlookers that you have arrived it also suggests that you can handle a Le Mans winning sports car.

A quick scroll through what is on offer through motors.co.uk is a real eye opener. There are Porsches for all budgets and these days Porsches come in all sorts of flavours. They are still sporty of course, but the crucial factor is that they can be seriously practical, even go off road and there is room for all the family.

Remember, Porsches are thoroughbred creatures and that means high running costs. Allow for that though and there really is a 'Porker' (slang for Porsche), for everyone. We guarantee that you will never regret the decision to buy. So what's out there to buy right now with Motors.co.uk?

LETS HAVE SOME FUN

Cayman - 2008

On the face of it is a 911 for those who can't afford one. Snobs though will be losing out because it does all the things that a Porsche is supposed to do and that's go really fast, very sweetly. It will also, stop, turn and then bomb into the distance. Holds its value too. One we found 2008 Porsche Cayman Tiptronic S, Arctic Silver 42K miles, £25,000 at Porsche Centre Sheffield 0114 224 5359. Comes with a 2 years Porsche Warranty and roadside assistance and has some gorgeous 19 inch Sport Design alloy wheels. Easy to drive too with the Tiptronic S Automatic gearbox.

CHECK OUT
THESE PORSCHE
AT MOTORS.CO.UK

<http://tinyurl.com/myvpuav>

HERE'S A REAL ICON

There is nothing that we can add to the legend. You either get the 911, or you don't. It is hard to miss that charismatic shape and driving one is an unforgettable experience. The 911 has become easier to live with and drive - that does not detract from its appeal.

One we found 2007 Porsche 911 S, Basalt Black Metallic 24K miles, £35,286 at Stratstone Aston Martin 020 8712 0579 This manual example is very low mileage and is packed with extras including a comprehensive Porsche Communication system, electric sunroof and adjustable suspension. The red brakes look sensational.

BRING THE FAMILY

Panamera - 2012

There is bags of room inside a Panamera which just happens to be brilliantly well built, quick and best of all practical. Hardly a common sight either, helping you to stand out from the common BMW and Mercedes saloon car crowd. It looks like a 911 but longer and there is nothing wrong with that.

One we found 2012 Porsche Panamera D 3.0 V6 Tiptronic, Carbon Grey, 30K miles, £46,950 at Quirks Car Company in Wickford, Essex 01268 921614.

This is a one owner example with a full main dealer history and is in immaculate condition throughout.

LET'S GET MUDDY

Cayenne - 2004

Many thought Porsche were mad to ever consider making a 4 x 4, but they had the last laugh when it became their best seller. That's because it still drove like Porsche despite being higher of the ground. Buyers also loved the practicality and fact it could deal with mud and snow.

One we found 2004 Porsche Cayenne 3.2 automatic, silver, 109K miles, £8495 at Legion Car Sales 01322 771632 A well looked after examples which has a few miles on the clock, but it comes with a full service history.

TOP-DOWN FUN

Boxster - 2008

In effect the Boxster is an old 911 made better with the engine where it should have been all along, in the middle. Fantastic. There has rarely been a more completely satisfying sports car package that charges hard, sounds great and has finely balanced handling and a removable roof.

One we found 2008 Porsche Boxster 3.4 automatic, Basalt Black, 74K miles, £16,950 at Saxton 4 x 4 01277 508682

Three owners for this well cared for Boxster, has a funky embossed Porsche leather seats and full surround sound system by BOSE.

LUXURY LIMO

MERCEDES-BENZ S 500 PLUG-IN HYBRID

Environmentally it is pretty remarkable to as it emits 65 g/km of CO<sub>2</sub> which means that it is exempt from road tax, and for City dwellers there is a 100 per cent discount on the London Congestion Charge.

If you want a great big luxury car, but get bored or inconvenienced by all that time spent at the fuel pumps, here is the answer. What buyers get is eight-cylinder power, but four-cylinder economy: so it returns a remarkable 100.9 miles to every gallon.

Prices start at £87,965 on-the-road, about what you expect for a big luxury car.

NEW FORD FOCUS

The revamped Ford Focus likes to shout about how efficient its engines are. There are all sorts of clever tricks like automatic stop/start so you don't waste fuel at the lights and a battery that is charged every time you brake.

All that means the 1.6 TDCi will do 74.3 miles to the gallon.

There is more to the Focus than just being mean with fuel of course, because it is fun to drive and looks just a little like a shrunken Aston Martin.

Inside it looks pretty groovy too and the standard equipment levels are fine from the basic Studio upwards. Prices start at £13,995.

SUPER CAR SHAMPOO FROM AUTOGLYM

Premium car care company Autoglym has unveiled a brand new car shampoo that promises more bubbles for the user.

Autoglym, which have been helping car enthusiasts and professionals achieve a flawless finish and high gloss shine on their cars for 50 years, launched the new Bodywork Shampoo this month.

The shampoo, which will be on shelves in a number of large retailers including Halfords, comes in a 500ml bottle costing £5.99 for 17 washes, and a 1L bottle costing £7.99 for 35 washes. We are giving five away for free simply enter online at freecarmag.co.uk/winstuff

The new shampoo has a rich foaming formulation which quickly breaks down and removes everyday contaminants from vehicle paintwork; it is easy to use and is a safe pH neutral formulation. The product doesn't affect existing wax or polish layers on the paintwork, and has a rich fruity fragrance.

The shampoo is also easy to rinse off without leaving any residue and is being targeted at motorists who have a desire to take pride in their cars but don't have much time to spare.

WIN A RANGE ROVER EVOQUE WITH BRITAX

Britax has launched the nationwide competition to promote its innovative range of ISOFIX child seats, ranging from Group 1 seats suitable for precious infants through to high-backed boosters designed to keep older children safe while on the move.

All of the products in the promotion can be safely and simply installed using the click-and-go ISOFIX latch system, which secures the child seat directly to the vehicle's chassis, drastically reducing the risk of misfitting and ensuring a safer and happier ride for families.

To enter the competition, all you have to do is purchase your very own ISOFIX child seat like the brilliant ADVANSAFIX. So go to www.britax.co.uk and choose a product then enter your details at
