Electricity cars were always a silly idea. Well, I would qualify that, the decision to turn all combustion cars into battery ones was just daft. It would have been far more sensible to use electricity where it might be appropriate. You know, inside cities. There it might help air quality and go about it's business more quietly, possibly as a useful van. That was the future 25 years ago and I can prove it. See you next time.

Free Car Mag love a paint job. Here is John Lennon's Phantom in our garden.

Free Car Mag continues the fight for motoring freedom in 2026, sticking up for drivers and those who want the freedom to choose what to drive and when to drive it. There will be stories that can't be read anywhere else and that should be reason enough to come back for more. All Hail Comrade Keef Stalin?
